SEPTEMBER MEETING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Fifteen members of the Champion Women's Institute and eight visitors met at the home of Mrs. C. G. Taylor on Tuesday, the 13th, to start planning work for the autumn months. The chief item of business was the making of detailed plans for a Handicraft Exhibit and Tea, to be held on or about October 16th, in the basement of the Community Hall. The gathering and arranging of the exhibit was left to Mrs. Little, our Handicraft Convenor. Mrs. Hummel offered to convene the Tea, with Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. Knudtson to assist her. Tickets to be sold for the Quilt raffle were distributed to the members.

It was agreed to request an exchange of the box of books from the Lady Tweedsmuir Library. Mrs. Aleock kindly offered to act as Librarian, when the new box should arrive. At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Todd, the Constituency Convenor, gave an inspirational talk in two parts, dwelling first on "Choose Wisdom" and secondly on "The Place of Woman in the World". A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Taylor.

LOCAL GIRLS HONORED AT PARTIES

About forty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Ditto on Sunday, Sept. 4th, complimentary to Miss Dorothy Ditto, who left for Calgary the following week to enter the Holy Cross Hospital as a nurse-in-training. The evening was spent in games and at its close, Miss Ditto was presented with a wine morocco purse by the assembled guests. She has been a popular member of the younger set and her departure is generally regretted.

Surprising Miss Helen Higgins over forty friends gathered at her home on Sunday evening to bid her farewell. The evening was spent in games, after which delicious refreshments were served. On behalf of those present, Miss Louretta Clever presented Miss Higgins with a black morocco purse bearing her initials. Helen has been a very popular member of the younger set and she will greatly miss by her many friends.

Hammond took the unwrapped nest and started away. His course led under a mass of Texas dog hatches, dirty snow piles, hastily shoveled away to reveal the foundation for a masseded cabin, of shacks and uprigths of new buildings, the latter an output from a portable sawmill hinged over the door. At last, he sighted a tree log cabin; he and Joe had built it for Jeanne Towers. Then he saw the place.

She broke from the door as his approach, running, almost sprawling

Hammond: "Remember you say I'm a fool?"

"Yes, I remember." For a moment Hammond travelled far back to the time when he was a boy, throwing it morning glories, smooth waters, with Kenna arms.

"You didn't happen to bring me a letter—or anything?"

Kenning laughed. He was a speering man, muscular, at all times ready to fight. He had been at home in dinner clothes.

"No letter—but a lot of others."

"Do you know each of them?"

Jeanne Towers asked.

"We old friends of the family," Kenning explained.

To see you after this long trip have to spend some time together. Just in, eh?"

"Yes, with to-day's bunch."

"To fight the gold fever."

"So late in?"

Hammond glanced again at money, clutched in Jeanne's hand.

"I'll say this for you. You fast."

"Don't!" His smile was a queer one. "Queer how it turns out! I went into Miss Towers' to get some tobacco. Got to talking with the district of course. I asked you were doing."

It circled the town and traveled far down the lake, dropping lower. At last, with its trailing

RALPH CONNOR'S GREATEST BOOK TO BE PUBLISHED IN SERIAL FORM

It is seldom that so great a book as Ralph Connor's "Postscript to Adventure" is made available to readers in serial form in a immediately following its publication. The fact, therefore, that the Family Herald and Weekly Star has secured exclusive rights for this book, is indeed interesting news.

"Postscript to Adventure" is a story of the life of Ralph Connor (now, C. F. Goodwin) well known, but little last time he wrote, having been completed before he died. It is an amazing tale built around his life of rich experiences, from his boyhood days in Hengary County, Ontario, to his bush-taking adventures during the World War. Critics have called it "the most exciting book—as thrilling as 'The Sky Pilot'." The Family Herald and Weekly Star is to be congratulated for its foresight in purchasing the rights for "Postscript to Adventure," thus making it possible for over a million readers to enjoy this great book inexpensively in serial form. Installments start in the Family Herald this month.

Line Elevator Companies and the Wheat Board

Attention has been drawn to statements suggesting that Line Elevator Companies opposed the establishment of the Wheat Board and took no part in the advancement of the farmers' case before the Turgeon Commission. These and all similar suggestions are false.

The solution of the wheat question requires the co-operation and goodwill of all those interested in the welfare of Western agriculture.

The 1938 Wheat Board was established because conditions in the international wheat situation demanded it, because that fact was recognized by the Government, and, not least, because all thoughtful Westerners and Western organizations, including the Line Elevator Companies, strongly supported it.

Realizing that union and not dissension amongst all those interested in the progress of Western agriculture and the honest facing of common problems are more than ever necessary and that the greatest disservice that any organization or individual can do in these present difficult times is to spread falsehoods, innuendoes or half truths, the Line Elevator Companies feel it necessary to draw your attention to

The Following Facts:

Before the Turgeon Commission:

1. ON THE OPENING DAY. Council for the Line Elevator Companies was the first to address the Commission. He outlined the burdens upon Western farmers. He referred to tariffs, interest rates, the cost of things farmers buy, transportation costs, etc. He said:

(a) "It may be stated that the farmer suffers from the double handicap of buying his goods at costs which are enhanced by a closed market and selling his product on a market in which tariffs and embargoes have been raised against him."

(b) "No one wishes, least of all those whose welfare is his welfare, to leave the farmer the victim of conditions which he did nothing to create."

(c) "At this point I may state that my clients endorse, wholeheartedly, any movement for a relief of the farmers' burdens and for the granting of support, as long as any condition either national or international, external or internal, render that relief a condition that support necessary for the maintenance of adequate living standards for farmers and their families."

2. AT CALGARY. Exhaustive evidence was offered of the increased costs of things which farmers buy. In answer to Mr. Justice Turgeon, Counsel for the Line Elevators, said:

"I want to say, quite frankly, my Lord, that the elevator companies do not oppose the establishment of a Wheat Board. Rather, we are all in favour of anything that will give the farmer the necessary protection. As indicated at the beginning of this inquiry, our attitude towards this Commission is that we would like to join with everybody else in searching for the best remedy for the ills of the farmers."

3. In the formal written argument—submitted on behalf of the Line Elevator Companies—Counsel said:

"It is submitted that a wheat board organization should be retained and made available for the guarantee of price in case the prevailing world price declines below a fixed figure set to assure the grower the highest minimum price possible for his product."

The 1938 Wheat Board

In 1938 the Line Elevator Companies advocated and supported a Wheat Board and the highest possible minimum price. Oral representations to the Dominion Government were supported by the following letter sent on July 20th, 1938, to the Dominion Cabinet and the Chairman of the Wheat Board:

"We understand from recent Press reports that the minimum price for the current crop year for wheat will be determined and announced by your Board and the Government in the next week or ten days. Our Association placed in evidence before the recent Royal Grain Enquiry Commission the following:

"Volume I, page 20. 'At this point I may state that my clients endorse wholeheartedly any movement for a relief of the farmers' burdens and for the granting of support as long as any condition, either national or international, external or internal, render that relief and that support necessary for the maintenance of adequate living standards for farmers and their families.'"

"And again, Volume I, page 20, 'If the deliberations of this Commission are to have the constructive effect which it is desired we believe that it should consider the economic position of the Western farmer in the national household. In any inquiry directed towards this end and in any movement to emphasize this position I am instructed to state that my clients will wholeheartedly join.' Bearing in mind the welfare of the producers, may we respectfully urge that your Board and the Government give consideration to the relationship between the present cost of necessities and the price of wheat. We understand that recent statistics released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics covering food, fuel, rent, clothing and sundries show that the average cost of these items for the year 1937 to be 31% higher than the cost of these same articles for the year 1933. The average price for No. 1 Nor. wheat in store Fort William for the year 1937 was 98¢. The handicap under which we believe our clients are laboring is set forth in the evidence given on our behalf by Mr. L. W. Brockington, K. C., Volume I, page 16, through 20, of the evidence of the recent Royal Grain Enquiry Commission. It is the hope of this Association that the Government will consider the highest possible minimum price consistent with the welfare of the Dominion of Canada."

Signed, C. E. Hayles, President."

After the price was set, in a newspaper interview, Mr. C. E. Hayles said:

"The members of the North-West Grain Dealers' Association are pleased to note that the Dominion Government has recognized the principle that, in the face of adverse international and national conditions, the economic position of the Western farmer is entitled to federal support, even at the risk of loss to the Dominion Treasury. We wish, however, that the Dominion Government had been able to guarantee a higher price."

CARMANGAY SCHOOLS OPEN WITH LARGE ENROLLMENT

Carmangay School opened for the fall term with a larger enrollment than last year. Under an agreement with the Lethbridge School Division No. 7, students from Burwash and Ryckman schools are attending Carmangay school. In addition a number of students from outside points have moved to town for the winter.

High School registration has been delayed in some cases by harvest operations. Commercial subjects, typing and book-keeping, are very popular, over 25 students requesting typing. The results of the June examinations were very satisfactory, grade 11 and 12 students making a 91% pass in departmental units. In the grade 9 class there were 5 unconditional and one "E" pronouncement.

The staff this year consists of Mr. G. L. Robertson, principal; Miss J. G. Binns, Miss H. Farmer and Miss R. Anderson.

Turner Valley Oil Field Is Boon To West

Development of Turner Valley as an oil field has been a big factor in saving this year $5 million dollars for western farmers in the prices of their gasoline and fuel oils.

Prices are lower because refiners have been able to use the supply of crude oil near at hand. Savings have been made in freight charges and these have been passed on to the consumer. In point of fact, the actual saving is substantially more, if one could accurately estimate. The $5 million is figured on the basis of 1937 consumption of petroleum products, a year in which there was a poor crop. This year prairie farmers are in a better position with better crops. Cost of their equipment and supplies for operation is lower.

Obviously also, the consumption of gasoline and distillates will be greater than last year when the crop failed. Thus a calculation on the basis of the 1937 crop necessarily falls a short in showing the actual savings in 1938.

Good Values in Good Seed

Thousands of farmers have been shown to have "Crop Testing Plan" "A" stocks of good seed of recommended varieties on their farms.

Farmers requiring large quantities of reasonably good seed should secure some "Crop Testing Plan" "A" stocks from a near neighbor.

See the agent of the Seale Grain Company for a list of those having "A" stocks in your district.
